

OPEN ALL YEAR

Camping can hardly get more convenient than at this new KOA, el-paso just off I-10 near the Texas Welcome Center and behind Camping World, Big rigs navigate the campground with ease, thanks to 30-foot-wide roads and large pull thru sites. All sites face north/northeast to take advantage of afternoon shade and the desert-paradise views of the foothills the Franklin Mountains State Park. Outdoor enthusiasts can scale the mountains via the Wyler Aerial Tramway or enjoy hiking, birding or four-wheeling.

Nearby, you'll find plenty of dining and shopping. You can also take a scenic drive down Highway 28 to visit Sombra Antigua Winery and other wineries along Highway 28 on the way to Sunland Park Racetrack and Casino Western Playland, The War Eagles Air Museum and historic downtown El Paso.

In the summer the Kids will love Wet-N-Wild Waterworld immediatly across Interstate 10.

CONVENIENT ACCESS via Interstate 10 West to Las Cruces Exit 0 turn right immediatly at KOA sign, or Interstate 10 East Exit 1 at Texas Welcome Center continue straight on frontage road, approx 1 mi. Go Left under I-10, then Left again, 1/4 mi to KOA sign on right proceed behind Camping World.
